

Falling Into A Dream

LYRICS BY KRISTIN FESSLER

Verse 1

You make my world smell like the summer
There's a sweetness in the air
Butterflies all in my stomach
When your fingers run through my hair

You are my favorite love song
You know the rhythm of my heart
When I tell the story of my life
You're gonna be my favorite part

Chorus

I'm awake
But I'm falling
Falling into a dream
Catch me baby, so I know that it's real
Feels like I'm falling into a dream

Verse 2

You are the reason for my laughter
I wouldn't have it any other way
You're the anchor that grounds me
When I feel like I'm floating away

Bridge

My heart is sure
There's no need to guess
You make me melt with pure happiness
The love I dreamed of for all those years
Is finally real now that you're here

Final Chorus

I'm awake
But I'm falling
Falling into a dream
Catch me baby, so I know that it's real
Feels like I'm falling into a dream

Outro

No more searching (no more searching)
No more fear (no more fear)
I found everything that I need right here
I'm awake (I'm awake)
But I'm falling (but I'm falling)
Falling into a dream

A song about meeting someone who feels almost too good to be real — when your heart knows it's different, and you can't help but fall, even if it still feels like a dream.
